Location

Leith has rapidly become one of the trendiest areas of Edinburgh. The former bustling port has been replaced by a vibrant cultural scene, with a host of independent galleries and cultural and gastronomic festivals taking place throughout the year. A range of quirky and diverse restaurants, delis, coffee shops, and artisan bars make the area extremely popular with visitors and city residents alike. The mile-long Leith Walk links the area to the city centre, and has a truly impressive range of independent shops and outlets. The nearby Ocean Terminal provides further shopping opportunities, along with a large cinema, member's gym and restaurants. The area boasts great bus and tram routes allowing quick and regular travel to the City Centre and beyond. The open green spaces of Leith Links, Pilrig Park, Calton Hill, Holyrood Park and Arthur's Seat are all within easy reach. The city centre, St James Quarter and Waverley Train Station are also within walking distance.
